

Happy Holidays and Season's Greetings!

OK, ok, the Holiday cards and letter are late this year. But we have an excuse. We were busy traveling.

Over the winter we visited Arizona and checked in on a little piece of property that Bob inherited from his folks. We're pleased to report that it's still there and has sprouted a cactus or two.

We spent some time up at Sue's Dad's farm this summer. And in July, we made our annual pilgrimage to Wisconsin to commune with airplanes and annoy our relatives. It was great to see both.

(Apologies to Grant Wood)

Bob flew a couple of fun air show demos and gave some presentations about ditching and water survival safety for pilots.

In September, Sue's Dad, Chet, celebrated his 90th Birthday. It was observed with an appropriately big celebration.

In October, we accompanied Chet to his WWII Troop Carrier Reunion in Indianapolis.

And Bob got a new job as Director of the National Response Department of the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary. (What were they thinking?!) It keeps him very busy and out of the bars.

So why are our cards late? Well, in December we traveled to Hawaii to attend a wedding. While we were in the 50th State, we took a cruise with our friends Bob and Kay, with whom we cruised in the Mediterranean last year. We got back just before Christmas.

There's no way we can show you all of our photos here, so please go to our web site, www.rshafer.net, and click on Shafer's Boring Photos. Most of this year's photos are on our zenfolio page. Or, you can go straight to rshafer.zenfolio.com or www.flickr.com/photos/miskypig/.

We're well, and having fun. We hope that you are well and happy, too.

Even if it's a bit tardy, we wish you a most Joyous Holiday season and a safe, happy, healthy and prosperous New Year!

Sue, Bob, Booger and Tootsie
